

Chambers USA Names Peckar & Abramson to Band 1 Level in Construction Law 29 P&A Lawyers Recognized as Leading Attorneys Six Regions and Government Contracts Practice Recognized

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that Chambers USA has recognized the firm at the Band 1 level nationwide in Construction Law. P&A stands alone in being named a Band 1 firm in Construction Law nationally and has been named in the position every year since Chambers USA began awarding the recognition. The firm was also recognized nationally in Government Contracts: Highly Regarded.

P&A's offices in New York, New Jersey, Florida, and Texas were ranked Band 1 in Construction Law, and the Firm's California, Illinois, and Washington, DC practices were also highly rated. Additionally, 29 of P&A's construction lawyers were named leading construction lawyers in their respective jurisdictions – more than any other construction law practice in the country.

As demonstrated by its consistent Chambers USA Rankings, Peckar & Abramson has earned a national reputation for exceptional legal advocacy, representing construction industry members domestically and internationally.

A few of the client comments submitted to Chambers USA during their 2024 research cycle include:

“No question about it, they are market leaders, no doubt. They are head and shoulders above everybody else.”

“We sought out and retained P&A because of their ability to handle complex, multi-issue construction disputes.”

“They are heavily involved in, and, as such, extremely knowledgeable of, the construction marketplace.”

“Peckar & Abramson is very thorough and very measured. There is a real awareness of the business decisions that need to be made. It gives really good actionable, practical advice.”

“I would trust P&A with any size claim. They have a deep bench of well-seasoned attorneys across all construction areas.”

“The firm has always been very responsive, particularly when time sensitivity has been critical.”

“Receiving this recognition from Chambers USA reflects P&A's position as a national leader in construction law and our firm's commitment to the construction industry, clients, and construction community,” said P&A Chair Steven M. Charney. He continued, “The extensive list of attorneys recognized further reflects the depth of our firm's ability to respond to our client's needs and deliver pragmatic solutions no matter the challenge.”

Peckar & Abramson's extensive national capabilities were highlighted, and its New York, New Jersey, Florida, Washington, D.C., Texas, and California offices were recognized in the following bands:
