

Ryan Wozny Joins Peckar & Abramson as Partner in Dallas, Enhancing the Firm's Litigation Capabilities

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that Ryan Wozny has joined the firm's Dallas office as a partner. With more than sixteen years of experience in a broad range of litigation and regulatory matters, Ryan brings significant value to the firm.

Timothy Matheny, managing partner of the firm's Dallas office, commented, "We're excited to have Ryan on board, as we are confident that his depth of legal experience in construction law will further enhance our mission to support Texas' evolving construction and infrastructure sector."

Matt Moore, managing partner of P&A's Texas offices, added, "Adding Ryan to our bench reflects our commitment to delivering top-tier client service to the Texas construction industry."

"When I was presented with the opportunity to join P&A, it was an easy decision," said Ryan. He continued, "I am eager to collaborate with such a talented team of lawyers and leverage my experience to provide strategic guidance and innovative solutions to our clients, further driving their success."

ABOUT RYAN WOZNY

Ryan brings a broad range of litigation and regulatory experience to P&A. In addition to the work he performs within the transportation and healthcare sectors, he represents owners, general contractors, subcontractors, and industry professionals in complex, multi-party, high-damage actions, including design defect allegations, construction safety litigation, and resolution of regulatory investigations of licensed professionals.

Ryan earned his J.D. from Texas A&M University School of Law and his B.S. from Texas A&M University, majoring in Journalism and minor in Business Administration. He is admitted to practice in Texas and is a member of the State Bar of Texas.
