

Peckar & Abramson Receives Construction Law Firm Award at Lexology Awards: North America 2024

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is proud to announce the firm has received the Construction Law Firm award at the 2024 Lexology Awards: North America. Only one firm earns this prestigious honor annually.

According to the Lexology research team, in association with the Association of Corporate Counsel and Who's Who Legal (WWL), this award recognizes the exceptional achievements of top firms in various practice areas and sectors. Companies have been honored at their global awards ceremonies for over 15 years.

With a rich history spanning over 45 years, P&A has consistently led the way in construction law, crafting tailored solutions for its clients. The firm's success has been repeatedly acknowledged by Lexology's Who's Who Legal, with a recent exclusive recognition for having the most significant number of US construction attorneys recognized overall, more than double the number of recognized construction attorneys in North America.

Firm Chair Steven M. Charney commented, "We thank Lexology for this esteemed award from Lexology and their recognition of the depth of the industry-leading talent that we have assembled over 45 years at P&A. Our recognition by Lexology reflects our deep devotion to serving our clients, delivering exceptional legal services, and defining the highest standards of excellence."
