

Peckar & Abramson Attorney Tracey L. Williams Named a 2024 Diversity and Inclusion Champion Finalist

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. (P&A) is pleased to announce that Tracey L. Williams, Senior Counsel in the firm's Dallas office, has been named a 2024 Diversity and Inclusion Champion Finalist, by Texas Lawyer and Law.com. This prestigious recognition honors legal professionals for their leadership in creating inclusive environments, supporting underrepresented groups, and promoting diversity within their organizations and the legal community.

"I am deeply honored to be recognized as a finalist among such esteemed members of the Texas legal community," said Tracey. "This recognition reflects the ongoing trust and support of P&A in cultivating leaders as advocates for inclusion and equal opportunity within the industry."

Timothy D. Matheny, Managing Partner of P&A's Dallas office, praised Tracey's selection, stating, "Tracey's impact extends far beyond our firm's walls and into the broader community, where she has been instrumental in creating opportunities for those historically underrepresented in our field. We are incredibly proud of her and offer our sincere congratulations on this well-deserved honor."

The final award recipients will be revealed at the awards ceremony on October 15 at the Arts District Mansion in Dallas. Winners will be selected based on the overall impact of their work, contributions to the legal profession, and their leadership within the community.

ABOUT TRACEY L. WILLIAMS

Tracey is a skilled litigator and has successfully represented contractors, developers, owners and subcontractors in Texas and Oklahoma during all phases of the construction process and thereafter. She assists clients in managing project risk through effective contractual risk allocation and counsels clients in construction matters involving contract disputes, mechanic's and materialman's liens, bond claims, construction defects, and other construction-related claims. In addition to construction law, Tracey has extensive experience in creditor's rights and commercial collections.

Tracey received her Bachelor of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Arlington, where she graduated cum laude. She earned her law degree from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law, now known as the Texas A&M University School of Law, where she served as managing editor of Law Review.

ABOUT PECKAR & ABRAMSON, P.C.

Peckar & Abramson, P.C. maintains offices in New York City, New Jersey, Boston, Washington D.C., Miami, Chicago, Los Angeles, Austin, Houston and Dallas, and has affiliations with global firms in Latin America (through its founding membership in CONSTRULEGAL) and across Europe (through its founding membership in Leading Construction Lawyers International Alliance). In addition to its core construction practice, the firm has affiliated practice groups who counsel contractors on labor and employment matters, corporate and regulatory compliance issues including D/M/WBE compliance and general corporate and real estate matters.

NEWS

As always, we are pleased to share insights and updates related to legal issues of interest with clients and friends of the Firm. Our records reflect that the recipient of this message is not a European Union “Data Subject” as defined by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), enacted on May 25, 2018. If you are or consider yourself to be a Data Subject under the EU’s GDPR, kindly email Megan Seybuck at mseybuck@pecklaw.com right away. The GDPR requires that all European Union Data Subjects provide explicit consent in order to continue to receive our communications.

The information provided in this Press Release does not, nor is it intended to, constitute legal advice. Readers should not take or refrain from taking any action based on any information contained in this Press Release without first seeking legal advice.