BIO

Hui Chen is an associate in Peckar & Abramson's Boston office, focusing his practice on construction law and business litigation. He is equipped to serve clients in both English and Mandarin.

Before joining Peckar & Abramson, Hui spent a year as a law clerk to the Honorable Justice Wayne R. Douglas of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court. Hui earned his B.S. in Political Science and Government from the University of Massachusetts Boston and his J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law.

During law school, Hui served as a judicial intern in the Massachusetts trial court and Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court. He was also a teaching assistant for a first-year contract course and an associate editor for the Northeastern Law Review.
