BIO

Ricky is an Associate in Peckar & Abramson's Miami office, focusing his practice on construction law and litigation. Ricky represents clients including general contractors and construction managers, in an array of legal matters. He offers a unique perspective, having worked in the construction industry for many years in the operations sector before attending law school.

Having previously served as a law clerk at P&A, Ricky is able to leverage his firsthand experience and deep understanding of our practices to deliver exceptional legal services.

Ricky earned his Juris Doctorate from Florida International University College of Law. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering and a Master of Science degree in Information Systems and Operations Management, with a specialization in Business Intelligence and Analytics, both from the University of Florida.
